Sen. McCarthy To Resume Probe

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—A suspended security official of the Army's top loyalty screening board will be asked to appear before Sen. Joseph McCarthy's investigating subcommittee Tuesday for questioning about alleged Communist affiliations.

McCarthy, who was here Sunday with the bride, refused to identify the suspended official, who, he said, was a member of the loyalty appeal board in the office of Army Security Robert Stevens.

The senator was scheduled to speak in Monroe, Wis., today and arrive in New York Tuesday for resumption of hearings of the Senate Permanent Investigating Subcommittee which he heads.

Among other questions the man would be asked, McCarthy said, was why the board, which handles clearance of Army employees for security work, had reversed lower boards which, he said, had found "clear cut evidence" of Communist activities.

"Our present plan is to have all the members of the board before our committee," he said.

The Wisconsin senator also disclosed that Igor Gouzenko, former Soviet embassy clerk in Ottawa who exposed Russian espionage, was still in the country.

DEMONSTRATIONS TO BE MADE ON TUESDAY

Some demonstrations of much interest to Putnam county farmers will be held at the Bayard Allen farm north-west of Greencastle starting at noon Tuesday. Subsoilers, bull dozers and disc plowing will all be demonstrated. Subsoiling is becoming one of the most attractive uses on Indiana farms as it is opening up the tight subsoil so that water can get down and be available when drouths come, such as was the case this summer.

HOOSIER GOP EDITORS MARK ANNIVERSARY

INDIANA ASSOCIATION WAS 75 YEARS OLD ON SATURDAY

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Hoosiers generally celebrated Halloween Saturday, but it was independence day for members of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association meeting in Indianapolis.

The editors quietly observed the 75th anniversary of their organization's birth and minimized the customary spotlight role of the professional politicians. The politician tails have wagged the editorial dogs in the past.

The editors listened to Governor Dan Thronon of Colorado assail the Democrats in the main banquet speech but restricted banquet remarks of Sen. William E. Jenner and his arch enemy, Governor George N. Craig, to only a few minutes each.

At the luncheon, the editors also shouldered the politicians. The only speakers there were Alvin C. McIntosh, of Luverne, Minn., president of the National Editorial Association, and former Senator Raymond E. Willis, of Angola, an active member of the Editorial Association.

Willis sternly rebuked the Indiana GOP factional leaders, saying: "There is a great deal of bickering in our party in Indiana and I think that maybe the Association can take a hand in quieting the situation. We editors have acted before when brickbats were flying between Republican factions. Unless we stop this fighting the Democrats will lick hell out of us in next year's election. I suggest to squabbling officeholders that they were not elected to further their own personal ambitions, but to serve the people."

Willis praised Senator Jenner and Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin for their battles against Communism in Washington. Jenner defeated Willis for the GOP senatorial nomination in 1946.

After Republican Congressman Earl Wilson, of Bedford, was booed by several persons, Governor Thornton also took cognizance of the Indiana party strife, saying:

"This is no time for Republicans to be fighting Republicans." Thornton warned that President Eisenhower cannot perform miracles overnight because he faces problems accumulated for 20 years. But he added:

"If the Republican party has accomplished nothing more, it has rid our government administration of fellow travelers. We are still in that process and the results have been, and will continue to be, gratifying."

Many To Attend Dinner Tuesday

The interest shown in the Community Dinner to be given at the Student Union tomorrow evening, Nov. 3rd, at 6:30 p. m., has been most gratifying, stated L. H. Dirks, secretary of the Greencastle Chamber of Commerce, this morning. It is expected that the full capacity of the banquet room of the Student Union will be taken by interested citizens of the community.

A variety musical program by the best talent on the DePaul campus will be featured, along with other entertainment that has been arranged. According to Mr. Dirks, "don't expect any long winded speeches—there just won't be any."

Mr. Dirks stated that tickets are still available until 320 are sold. They may be purchased from Ward Mayhall or the Chamber of Commerce.

Suit Filed In Putnam Court

In a venue suit from Hendricks county filed in the Putnam circuit court Saturday, Bonnie M. Nagleisen seeks complaint for trespass and action in ejectment against the Indiana Farm Bureau Association, Inc., and the Mary Construction Company.

The suit, in two paragraphs, asks judgment of $10,000 in each case.

The plaintiff charges that the defendants wrongfully, unlawfully and without any right, entered upon her real estate in Hendricks county and in so doing, cut and damaged fences, mutilated crops, disturbed the soil and otherwise injured the premises.

Two On Trial At Greenfield

GREENFIELD, Ind., Nov. 2.—(INS)—Trial was scheduled to begin today in Hancock Circuit Court for two escaped convicts who already have served 18 years of a life sentence given them in the case.

Paul Pierce and Donald Joseph, convicted of the first-degree murder of Indianapolis policeman Orville Quinnette, won new trials on a three-year contention that their first trial was unfair.

Principal witness against them will be the same woman who testified they were responsible for their original sentence. Quinnette's detective partner on that fateful night of Dec. 7, 1935, Russell Chatham.

Events leading to the tragedy began when the two detectives were sent to an apartment house to investigate a stolen car. When they knocked at the apartment door, it was opened by Pierce and Joseph, who had escaped from Indiana State Prison at Michigan City just 60 days before.

In the fight which followed, Quinnette was shot five times. Chatham was slugged but managed to get his revolver loose and shot the thug who was working him over.

Eleven days later, Quinnette died without regaining consciousness.

With both detectives unconscious, Pierce and Joseph fled and commandeered a car. They were captured in a farmhouse near Mihroy by state police, three days later.

Accident Occurs Near Manhattan

The heavy fog and a mechanical breakdown at 5 a. m. Monday caused a traffic accident on U. S. 40, just east of Manhattan, involving three motor vehicles. The wife of one of the drivers suffered minor injuries and her husband's car was damaged an estimated $400.

State Trooper George Heck, of the Putnamville Post, reported that a 1949 Chevrolet truck was being driven west on 40 by Gilbert E. Fields, 23, of Terre Haute. The officer said the front end of the truck broke down and Fields lost control. The truck crossed the highway and crashed into a guard rail on the eastbound dual lane.

Edward Hays, 26, also of Terre Haute, driving a tractor and trailer, stopped to give Fields some assistance. Due to the fog, Sgt. Morris E. Myers, of San Antonio, Texas, did not see the trailer until it was too late to avoid hitting the rear of the vehicle. Mrs. Myers sustained bruises about the nose and face and Myers' 1950 Buick sedan was damaged.

Famous Quint To Enter Convent

QUEBEC CITY, Nov. 2 (UP)—Quintuplet Marie Dionne will be treated "just like every other girl" when she enters the Holy Sacrament Convent this week to become a nun.

The black-clad and white-veiled sisters of the order said today there would be no special welcome for the tiniest of the world-famed quints who are now 19.

"Marie has not yet reported but we expect her anytime now," the mother superior said. "The young woman will enter the cloister just like every other girl and when she has joined us she will be another servant of the Lord."

Marie must join the order before Nov. 15, the final date each year on which newcomers, or postulants, may begin their cloister.

The order, one of the most sheltered in the Roman Catholic church, keep a constant vigil before the Holy Sacrament. Marie, as a postulant, will pray three full hours every day for soldiers who gave their lives for their country.

Neither Marie, her parents nor the mother superior would comment on what she planned to do with the trust fund she will inherit on her 21st birthday. More than one million dollars which they collected for endorsements and film rights for their life story is being held for the quints by the Ontario Public Guardians office.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—(UP)—Firemen battled a blaze in a debris-cluttered home early today and found a 15-year-old high school girl shot to death and her mother critically wounded.

The girl was found in a bedroom with a bullet in the temple. Her mother, Mrs. Helene Cox, 40, was lying on a bed next to her laughter with chest wounds.

Two pistols were found on the bed, one with four empty shells. When firemen answered the alarm they found Mrs. Cox calling for help from the bedroom and the front door blocked with empty milk cases.

Firemen reported milk and egg cases on a stairway and three foot-high stacks of paper in each room. Firemen had to remove the mother and dead girl through a window because of debris surounding the bed.

ELECTIONS IN THREE STATES ON TUESDAY

POLITICAL SPOTLIGHT WILL BE CENTERED ON TOMORROW'S RESULTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (UP)—Trend-watching politicians today focused a spotlight of national interest on Tuesday's off-year elections in New Jersey, Virginia and New York City.

New Jersey will elect a governor and a congressman, Virginia a governor and New York City a mayor. Although local issues have played a major role in all of the hard-fought contests, political leaders from the White House down will study the results closely for a sign of things to come in the crucial battle for control of Congress in 1954.

Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Little Rock, Ark., and more than 100 other cities also will elect mayors Tuesday but national issues in these contests, if present at all, have played an insignificant part.

On form, the Republicans should have an edge in both New Jersey races and the Democrats in the Virginia and New York City contests. An upset in any of the races would doubtless be greeted by the victorious party as evidence that the national tide is flowing its way.

Democrats would particularly like to repeat in New Jersey the surprise victory they recently scored in Wisconsin's special congressional election. The Wisconsin seat had never before been won by a Democrat. The congressional vacancy at stake in New Jersey's 6th District has been safely Republican since 1932. The candidates are Republican George L. Hatfield and Democrat Harrison A. Williams.

A fine of $100 and costs for failure to have an operator's license was also imposed by the Mayor who suspended the fine providing the defendant was not apprehended again on the same charge.

COMMITTEE DIFFERS

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—(INS)—The House Penal and Reformatory Institutions Committee Sunday ran out from under its chairman Republican Representative Merrett R. Monks, of Winchester, who had demanded the resignation of Governor George N. Craig.

Monks urged the committee to investigate the Governor's administration of the State Reformatory, scene of a recent riot. But only four of the committee's 16 members appeared at the State House for the meeting and three refused to join Monks in denouncing Craig and in probing the Reformatory.

Instead, the three suggested that Monks see the Governor and give to him information he said he had concerning the possibility of another outbreak at the institution. The legislators were Republican Representatives Earl Buchanan, of Indianapolis; Emerson Cloyd of Brookville; and Thomas B. Criger, of Attica. No Democrats were there.

Mr. Muzzy had opened the tray of diamonds and Mr. Champion had won with the king. He had then cashed the ace and queen of clubs. On the second club Mr. Muzzy had showed out, dropping the tray of hearts.

As you see, the club suit was now blocked. If another club is led to the king, the high club is then in the closed hand—and there are no more entries to dummy.

If Mr. Champion leads the nine of clubs and ducks in dummy, Mrs. Keen will win with the jack and the defenders can then win four tricks in diamonds.

Well, when you don't have the entries you need to make your contract you can always try to enlist the aid of your opponents. Mr. Muzzy had led the tray of diamonds so it appeared he didn't have more than five cards in the suit. If he could be enticed into cashing his diamonds, the hand could still be made.

So at trick four Mr. Champion tossed out his six of diamonds. "Ridiculous is right," commented Mr. Muzzy, to whom it appeared Mr. Champion had simply pulled the wrong card while intending to lead another club.

Mr. Muzzy co-operated beautifully. He won with the queen of diamonds and cashed the ace. On this last trick Mr. Champion discarded the eight of clubs. Although Mr. Muzzy won four diamond tricks in all, he was then through. Mr. Champion won the ensuing heart lead and since he had unblocked the club suit he was able to take nine tricks without difficulty.

Admittedly it was tough for Mr. Muzzy not to cash his diamonds but if he had shifted to a heart after winning the second diamond lead, Mr. Champion's clubs would still have been blocked and the story would have had a different ending.

NINETEEN DIE IN BRITISH AIRLINER CRASH

FIRST MEMBERS of a ground rescue party reach the spot where 19 persons were killed in the crash of a British airliner 18 miles from the end of its journey from Sydney, Australia, to San Francisco. The plane smashed into a redwood-covered mountain tip within two minutes of its scheduled arrival at San Francisco's International airport. State Wallops Winless Tigers

Indiana State, scoring almost all in the first half, white-washed DePauw, 38-0 Saturday afternoon at Terre Haute.

In less than two minutes of the second quarter, Sycamore Halfback Glen Tyler widened the Sycamores' two-touchdown lead into four on scoring runs of 60 and 65 yards. The first came on a punt return, the second on a wide-open punt with an intercepted pass.

Fullback Arvin Workman bucked over from the two-yard line for a third Indiana State touchdown in the period. The half-time score was Indiana State 32, DePauw 0.

The Sycamores had scored quickly in the first quarter after recovering a fumble on the DePauw 24. Walt LeBeque ran over from the six. Also in the first period, Quarterback Dave Brines passed 12 yards to End Jack Griffith in the end zone.

The toothless Tiger defense perked up against second and third string players in the second half. The only score was Brines' 50-yard pass to End Jerry Long.

DAINGEROUS HOURS

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—(INS)—The Hoosier Motor Club disclosed today that four out of five pedestrians killed in traffic accidents last year lost their lives between 5 p. m. and 1 a. m.

The statistics were released by club secretary-manager Richard James as a kickoff for the organization's "Wear White After Dark" campaign.

James said under poorest conditions a pedestrian in all-dark clothing can barely be seen by a driver as close as 50 feet, too close for a car traveling 30 miles an hour to stop.

He added that deaths from accidents after sunset increase sharply in the fall and early winter months, as the hours of greatest traffic volume also become hours of darkness.

Station WGR

Prof. Glen Sherman of De Pauw's music school, will present the fifth in a series of programs, "Piano Classics for Easy Listening" over Station WGR tonight. Included will be works by Franz Liszt.

A John Galsworthy play, "Strife," is scheduled for BBC Theater at 8; and at 9 "Master works from France" will feature the Paris Choral Association and soloists from the French National Orchestra.

LOOKING...

...AT LIFE

By Erich Brandeis

Ladies, let this be a lesson to you!

When your favorite man sits around the house, stares into space with a dreamy look on his face, wanders aimlessly around the yard without rhyme or reason—don't disturb him.

He is not thinking about that beautiful blonde hussy across the street or of that poker game in Jim's house to which you wouldn't let him go.

He is, most likely, developing a big idea, or working on a very important plan for his business—a plan that may buy you anything of which you ever dreamed. That stupid look in his eyes may be the forerunner of a vast fortune that is coming your way.

The person who can "just sit and do absolutely nothing, may, at any minute come up with the most sensational ideas," according to doctors.

As a matter of fact, the article goes farther than that. That man of yours, whom you might ordinarily describe to yourself as an incorrigible loafer, "indeed, may be said to have achieved a new and high level of maturity."

I have heard it said so often that all men are nothing but overgrown boys. But now you have it right from the horse's mouth.

We are not overgrown boys at all—we are just maturing. And, according to the doctors, the laziness we seem to be, the more mature we are getting.

So please, ladies, don't keep us from ripening.

By the way—and I think it fits right in here—in Newark, N. J., a Husbands Protective Association has just been formed.

This association will issue regular bulletins with alibis that may be used, and with other bits of advice on how to get along with women.

Later on it is planned to publish the names of all members' wives who have abused their husbands and how they have abused them.

I have the name and address of the organization, but I am not a member.

I know better, having been married these many years.

Club Enjoys Annual Dinner

The annual dinner of the Martha Washington Club was held at the home of Mrs. George Garrett, Wednesday evening Oct. 28. It was also the fortieth anniversary and Mrs. Dalby, a charter member brought a cake with 1913-1953 on it. Mrs. Ruth Fry brought a lovely birthday cake in honor of her guest, Mrs. Shank whose birthday was Oct. 28. All gathered around the dining table where Marvin Jewel returned thanks after which the group sang Happy Birthday to Mrs. Shank.

Sixteen members and twenty-two guests did justice to the turkey and other good food provided by the club. Mr. Jewel gave a humorous reading about Geo. Washington then on a tour, which was enjoyed very much.

A contest between the husbands and the lady guests resulted in a tie. A picture guessing contest was won by Mrs. Dan Rowland for the ladies and Dan Rowland for the men. The rest of the evening was spent in playing games. Everyone thanked Mrs. Garrett and the hostess, Mrs. Maude Williams for an enjoyable evening.

What's the actual cost of a new Kaiser?

Far less than you think!

"Cost me only $550"

says John E. Lillard, of Long Beach, Calif., who traded in his '52 model for a new Kaiser Manhattan. "I got a great car, and a great deal from my Kaiser dealer."

"Only $39.34 a month!"

reports Leo H. O'Neil, of Alexandria, Virginia. "That, plus my old car, got me a smart, new Kaiser Manhattan. My Kaiser dealer's trade-in was the best in town by $250."

"Terrific!"

That's how Helen Buff, of San Valley, Calif., describes it. "My 1950 car and $65 per month put me in a new Kaiser Manhattan," she writes.

"$30 a month!"

That's all it cost Richard Bovek, of Euclid, Ohio, thanks to the whopping allowance his Kaiser dealer gave him on his '52 car.

And you get a much better car in the bargain!

Despite its record growth in seven years, Kaiser is still a relative newcomer to the automotive field. So it's important to get more Kaisers on the road—acquire more car owners with Kaiser's great value! That's why Kaiser dealers are reported to be not only meeting—but exceeding—top prices offered by other dealers!

Kaiser offers you more room and luxury than three of the most expensive cars—plus—the largest glass area of any standard sedan, as well.

More economy than many so-called "low-price" cars, too! Its 23.3 miles per gallon record reported by Motor Trend Magazine proves it!

What's more you can't match Kaiser's safety and performance at any price! See the beautiful new Kaiser. Drive it and discover it's what you've been waiting for!

Costs you less... Kaiser... saves you more!

IN 1,580 INDIANA communities (830 towns—including 4 county seats—and 750 smaller units) the sole means of transportation available is motor vehicles. Passengers must move by bus and auto, and freight by truck. Why? Because these communities are not served by any transportation system other than highways.

YET THE PEOPLE in these communities are not hermits! They are as happy and as successful as you are. They're as well fed, well housed and well clothed as the population of Indiana's largest metropolitan centers. You see, they're served by truck.

EVERY INCOMING ITEM—food, medical supplies, furniture or farm machinery—is brought by truck. And every item grown or manufactured there, providing jobs and income for this big slice of Indiana, moves out by truck.

SO MAYBE INDIANA once had "hermit" communities, but there's nary a one now! Trucks have brought all Hoosier communities into direct contact with Indiana's abundance and prosperity. Even the tiniest village can share in and contribute to both!

If you've got it... a TRUCK brought it!
